Cape Liberty Cruise Port Selected for 2005 “New Good Neighbor” Award

New Jersey Business & Industry Association awards cruise port for economic benefit to the community.

Bayonne, April 18, 2004 - Cape Liberty Cruise Port has been selected by the New Jersey Business & Industry Association (NJBIA) as the 2005 New Good Neighbor Award.

The cruise port is located at The Peninsula at Bayonne Harbor in Bayonne, NJ and is owned and operation by Royal Caribbean Cruises. The award will also be presented to the architect and builder of the cruise port, CH2M Hill Constructors, Inc.

Cape Liberty was nominated by the Bayonne Economic Development Corporation, which will also be recognized at the awards banquet.

The New Good Neighbor Award recognizes the state’s newest and best development projects. Since 1960, NJBIA has presented its New Good Neighbor Award to hundreds of companies across the State that have built, expanded or renovated outstanding buildings and development projects.

The winning projects are recognized for their economic benefit to the community (including the creation of new jobs), their architectural merit, and their community involvement. An independent panel of judges selects the winners.

Other 2005 New Good Neighbor Award Winners are Cedar Crest, Pompton Plains; Firmenich, Plainsboro; Lyric Hall, Rocky Hill; Mercedes-Benz USA Regional Master Parts Distribution Center, Robbinsville; The Peddie School, 120 Main Street Project, Hightstown; Red Bank Veterinary Hospital, Tinton Falls; Roche Molecular Systems, Branchburg; Stryker Orthopaedics, Mahwah, and Woodcrest Corporate Center, Cherry Hill.

Special project winners are Lewis-Sigler Institute for Integrative Genomics, Princeton and New Jersey Institute of Technology & Associates, PA, Newark.

Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd. is a global cruise vacation company that operates
