Executive Director of BLRA Guest Speaker at 56th Street Senior Community Center
Nancy A. Kist to discuss current and future plans for redevelopment of the former Military Ocean Terminal (MOTBY).

Bayonne, May 26, 2004 - Nancy A. Kist, Executive Director of the Bayonne Local Redevelopment Authority (BLRA) was a recent guest speaker at the 56th Street Senior Community Center.

Kist discussed the current and future redevelopment plans for the former Military Ocean Terminal, including the BLRA's newest tenant, Royal Caribbean Cruises, Ltd. She also discussed the Peninsula's growing role in the film industry.

"I was delighted to have the opportunity to speak with Bayonne citizens and address their questions and concerns regarding the redevelopment of the former Military Ocean Terminal," said Kist. "By informing the public of the redevelopment process and getting their feedback, the BLRA can better incorporate the needs and desire of the community."

The Bayonne Local Redevelopment Authority was created in 1998. The mission of the BLRA is to market The Peninsula at Bayonne Harbor for short and long-term redevelopment that benefits the City of Bayonne.

The 56th Street Senior Community Center is open to all senior residents of the Bayonne community. The Center provides a variety of seminars each month. Topics include educational issues, business, technology as well as health-related issues.

For information on upcoming events at the 56th Street Senior Community Center, please call Erica, Laura or Bruce at (201) 437-5996. For more information about the BLRA, please call (201) 823-0333.
