The Peninsula at Bayonne Harbor to Host Third Annual Port Industry Day

Bayonne, September 25, 2003 - The Third Annual Port of New York-New Jersey Port Industry Day will be held at The Peninsula at Bayonne Harbor on Thursday, October 9.

The day-long symposium is available to all those interested in the Port of New York-New Jersey including management, labor, shippers, steamship/truck/rail/barge/tug carriers, terminal operators, freight forwarders/ custom house brokers, warehousemen, service providers, government, business and civic agencies and associations.

There will be two morning symposiums, each with a distinguished array of speakers who will address the topic "Changing the Way We Do Business - Building a Better Infrastructure" and "Changing the Way We Do Business - Building a Better Port."

The conference will be followed by an afternoon International Food Festival and exhibits, tours and networking will be held throughout the day, including tours of The Peninsula at Bayonne Harbor.

"The Peninsula at Bayonne Harbor is the perfect location to host Port Industry Day, and we're excited to work with the Port Authority of NY/NJ in making this year's event a success," said Nancy A. Kist, Executive Director, Bayonne Local Redevelopment Authority.

Tickets for the full day event are $75. Exhibit tables are $500. There are also opportunities for sponsorship.
